■ We can earn commissions from links on this page. Our editorial is always independent (learn more) Be the queen or queen of quizzes, using these questions for your big night... While some people have taken some time away from quizzing since the UK's first isolation lifted, there are many people out there who are still busy challenging their friends, family and colleagues every week. And now, with Christmas approaching, many people are looking for Christmas quiz questions and answers to their family gatherings and virtual office parties. The beauty of the pub quiz is that everyone can get involved, and rounds of all ages and hobbies will surely highlight a competitive series even in casual players. Not to mention the fact that a video call quiz is an interesting way to catch up with those you can't see in person at this time because of social distance, travel restrictions or other complications. So, we continue to update our top pub quiz questions at this time, with around 300 questions on all kinds of topics on this page alone. From general knowledge and sports to Star Wars and 70s music should be something for everyone, we've also used our television experience for specific rounds, like Doctor Who, Peaky Blinders and The Simpsons. So, take a look below and you'll see your custom pub quiz shape! If one round in particular takes your fancy, click on the appropriate link for even more testing questions from this genre.
